LENT 2012 ~ ASH WEDNESDAY

On Wednesday, February 22ND the Church begins the forty days and forty nights of Lent.

On Ash Wednesday, you will receive upon your forehead the blessed ash. The blessed ash are made from the blessed palms that were distributed last Palm Sunday. Please bring your blessed palms to church and place them in the basket that is in the vestibule of the church.

When we receive the blessed ash, the celebrant will make the sign of the cross on your forehead saying: "Remember you are dust, and unto dust you shall return, but your soul returns to God." and the response is: AMEN.

ASH WEDNESDAY MASSES

10:00 A.M. & 7:00 P.M. Ashes distributed at both Masses.

LENTEN DEVOTIONS

The Polish National Catholic Church as not eliminated Lenten Devotions during the Season of Lent. Lenten Services have been eliminated by priests because in their former pastoral experience in other denominations the services were not found to be important to the life of the church, or a lack of spirituality on the part of a congregation and the parish does not support the Lenten Disciple of the PNCC.

All Saints Parish will be celebrating Lenten Devotions on Wednesdays during Lent. The devotions begin at 7:00 p.m. alternating between Stations of the Cross and Bitter Lamentations with Exposition of the Most Blessed Sacrament at both services. And on Fridays, Stations of the Cross will be celebrated for senior citizens at 3:00 p.m.

Lenten Devotions only takes 45 minutes to 55 minutes to participate in. Jesus hung on the Cross for three hours. He bleed, suffocate and die for you. Can you not give Him a few hours during the weeks of the Season of Lent?

READING 1

Jb 7:1-4, 6-7

L: A reading from the Book of the Prophet Job

Job spoke, saying: Is not man's life on earth a drudgery? Are not his days those of hirelings? He is a slave who longs for the shade, a hireling who waits for his wages. So I have been assigned months of misery, and troubled nights have been allotted to me. If in bed I say, "When shall I arise?" then the night drags on; I am filled with restlessness until the dawn. My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle; they come to an end without hope. Remember that my life is like the wind; I shall not see happiness again.

L: This is the Word of the Lord.

R: Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 147:1-2, 3-4, 5-6

R: Praise the Lord, who heals the brokenhearted.

READING 2

1 Cor 9:16-19, 22-23

L: A reading from the first Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians

Brothers and sisters: If I preach the gospel, this is no reason for me to boast, for an obligation has been imposed on me, and woe to me if I do not preach it! If I do so willingly, I have a recompense, but if unwillingly, then I have been entrusted with a stewardship. What then is my recompense? That, when I preach, I offer the gospel free of charge so as not to make full use of my right in the gospel. Although I am free in regard to all, I have made myself a slave to all so as to win over as many as possible. To the weak I became weak, to win over the weak. I have become all things to all, to save at least some. All this I do for the sake of the gospel, so that I too may have a share in it.

L: This is the Word of the Lord.

R: Thanks be to God.

ALLELUIA VERSE

V: Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

R: Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

V: Christ took away our infirmities and bore our diseases.

R: Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

GOSPEL

Mk 1:29-39

C: a A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Mark

R: Glory be to You, Lord.

On leaving the synagogue Jesus entered the house of Simon and Andrew with James and John. Simon's mother-in-law lay sick with a fever. They immediately told him about her. He approached, grasped her hand, and helped her up. Then the fever left her and she waited on them. When it was evening, after sunset, they brought to him all who were ill or possessed by demons. The whole town was gathered at the door. He cured many who were sick with various diseases, and he drove out many demons, not permitting them to speak because they knew him. Rising very early before dawn, he left and went off to a deserted place, where he prayed. Simon and those who were with him pursued him and on finding him said, "Everyone is looking for you." He told them, "Let us go on to the nearby villages that I may preach there also. For this purpose have I come." So he went into their synagogues, preaching and driving out demons throughout the whole of Galilee.

C: This is the Gospel of the Lord.

R: Praise be to You Lord, Jesus Christ.

Blessing of Candles before the Homily.

Blessing of throats after Mass during the Recessional Hymn.
